SHERIFFS ASSAULTED

BY CANADIAN "BLIND PIGGERS"

Fracas on the Soo Train at Portal
White Gang of L.W.-Breakers
Rescued Two Companions.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 19.—Deputy Sheriffs Pearson and George were attacked by a party of blind-piggers from the Canadian side of Portal, N. D., in an attempt to rescue three of the gang who had been arrested. The assault took place on the Soo train. As the train was pulling out from Portal, it was boarded by a dozen or more piggers, who made the assault upon the two deputies with pistols, and succeeded in dragging two of the prisoners from the train. The deputies were overpowered and badly beaten, but succeeded in retaining one of the men under arrest. Despite the fact that the rescue party was armed, not a shot was fired. The train was in motion when the men escaped. Sheriff Lee at Minn. has sent deputies to Portal to arrest the assaulters.

JUDGE NESBITT MAY RESIGN

Ottawa, Sept. 19.—It is reported that Justice Nesbitt of the Supreme court intends resigning his position to go back to practice his profession which will be very much more lucrative to him than his judgeship, notwithstanding the recent increase in salary.

POLISH REPRESENTATION

St. Petersburg, Sept. 19.—The Sol sky commission has elaborated the conditions governing the representation of the people of Poland in the National Assembly. The voters will be divided into three classes, the first to be limited proprietors, second members of cantons owning from three to twenty acres and third urban electors. Thirty-six members will be returned from Poland.

SKY SCRAPER FOR WINNIPEG

Winnipeg, Sept. 19.—The Canada Life Assurance Co. has decided to build a 16 story sky scraper on their present site on the corner of Portage and Main street, next spring. The building will be the finest thing of the kind in Canada and will cost about a million dollars. A record in building permits amounting to $136,000 were taken out today, the largest item being $85,000 for a new brewery to be erected by the Canada Malt Co. of Toronto.

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Deputy Minister of Education McKenzie is getting his Departmental work in order. The only officials in this department coming from Regina were the Deputy Minister, one stenographer and one clerk, so that a number of appointments will be made to assist in the work before long.

The same regulations for the erection of new school districts and the authorization of debentures as were in force in the Territories, are still in force in the province, and no changes will likely be made until the legislature meets.

The question of authorization of text books will be one of the most important in this department. For some time past text books have been submitted to the Territorial Minister of Education, but owing to the pending of Provincial Autonomy no action was taken. The provinces will now have to take this matter up and arrange for the best possible set of text books for the public and high schools of the province. It will be a matter of from six to nine months before it can be successfully worked out.

BOUQUET FOR BENNETT

Calgary Herald, August 16: Mr. Bennett's corporation connections are such as may render his acceptance of the position of Conservative leader inadvisable, if not impossible.

LIBERAL CONVENTION

A convention of the Liberals of the Stony Plain constituency called by the Provincial Liberal Government will be held on Saturday, October 7, at 2 o'clock in Miller's Hall, Stony Plain Centre for the purpose of nominating a candidate to contest that constituency in the coming provincial election.

The following polling sub-divisions as constituted at the Dominion election will be entitled to be represented at that convention, namely: Mevassan, White Whale Lake; Lac Ste. Anne; (except that portion lying north of the line between Township 55 and 56); Onoway, (except that portion between Townships 55 and 56); Oboron; Glory Hills; Rosenthal; Warburton; Stony Plain Centre; Spruce Grove; North View; Splan; Huron; St. Leon; Brazeau and Stony Plain.

The Deputy Returning Officers who acted at the last Dominion election have been requested to immediately arrange for the holding of meetings of the Liberals in each of the above named sub-divisions for the purpose of appointing delegates to such convention. These meetings will be held in the same places that the polling stations were located at the time of such last election. The deputy returning officers were: Hons. Brown, W. G. Blissett, D. E. McConnet, C. Armistead, A. Gansley, S. Wiltmer, D. Miller, P. S. Westburn, Ludvig Ulmer, W. Bristowe, F. Smith, Sam. Soucy, B. B. Ensey, Nap. Thibardeau, L. O. Lamoureux, D. S. McKay.

GOLDEN WEDDING

A party consisting of Messrs. O. Tossler, P. E. Lessard, A. Lessard, A. Prince, T. T. Picard and Dr. Roy went to Lamoureux yesterday to attend the celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Lamoureux's golden wedding. Father Bernier conducted mass in the parish church at 10 a.m., Father Merer of St. Albert preaching the sermon. The company then adjourned to the home of Alcide Lamoureux, eldest son of the aged couple in whose honor the ceremony was being held. After an excellent dinner had been served addresses were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Lamoureux from their children, grand children and friends accompanied by a purse of gold. The latter Mr. Lamoureux donated to the church for the purchase of a bell. Father Ledue replied to the addresses on behalf of the recipients. Speeches were also delivered by Messrs. Prince, Picard, Lessard and Dr. Roy. The descendants of Mr. and Mrs. Lamoureux present numbered thirty-six and four generations were represented.

LOCAL

—Rev. Jolliffe, of Star, and C. E. Race, of Alberta College, addressed the Strathcona Epworth League last evening on the missionary work of this district. The meeting was well attended and the addresses were interesting and instructive.

—Miss Lucella McAmmond, the new teacher of education in the Alberta College, entertained a few friends of Mrs. Riddell's last evening with a short program of readings. Those fortunate enough to hear her claim that Miss McAmmond is not only a teacher but a most entertaining and accomplished reader.

—P. Wagner, assistant immigration agent, has returned from the eastern part of Victoria. He found crops in a splendid condition and the people well satisfied. Both old and new settlers have done quite a lot of breaking for next year. Mr. John Knab, of Deep Lake, thinks his oats will yield over 100 bushels to the acre. People are busy hauling and stacking grain and the machines are at work in every corner.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 19.—The Russian government proposes to address the foreign governments with a view of holding a second peace conference at The Hague. It is known that President Roosevelt is anxious that this conference should be called, but he is of opinion that the first step in this direction should be taken by the Emperor of Russia, on whose initiative the first conference was held.

NEW BULLETIN ON WHEAT VALUES.

It will be remembered that about this time last year the Territorial Department of Agriculture issued a Bulletin on the comparative values of the different grades of wheat of the crops of 1903. This Bulletin contains the results of a number of careful chemical analyses, milling and baking tests, carried out by, or under the personal supervision of Professor Robert Harcourt, who occupies the Chair of Chemistry at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, who has made wheat and flour investigations a special study for a number of years past.

The bulletin aroused a great deal of interest as it was the first investigation of the sort, and was carried out under practical milling conditions. The results arrived at went far to show that there is little or no justification for the great spread in prices between the grades which has been a feature of the wheat market in recent years. As it was necessary, in order to ensure conclusions of value, that the work should be continued from year to year, the Department secured a lot of eight bushel samples of the 1904 crop which were graded by the Chief Inspector at Winnipeg and forwarded to Guelph. The results of the tests are now made public in the form of Bulletin No. 18 of the late Territorial Department, and copies may be secured free of charge upon application to the Departments of Agriculture at Regina or Edmonton. The work of this year practically confirms the results formerly published and every one interested in this most important subject should procure a copy of the Bulletin.

AN AMERICAN SETTLER ON THE SITUATION IN THE NEW PROVINCES

By JAMES HAPGOOD, in the Winnipeg Free Press

Other American settlers in Alberta and Saskatchewan mostly came into this country, I presume for the same sort of reasons that brought myself and my family. Some of us had good farms where we were, but the farms were not as good as the money we could get for them, provided we could get the land right cheap elsewhere. We could not find free promising homesteads anywhere we knew of in the States, alongside cheap government lands or cheap railway lands. We did find such lands here in Canada, and so, considering everything, and particularly the future of our children, we came here. Others of us had poor places with mortgages on them heavier than crops. Others had been working at one thing and another saving up against the time when they could buy a likely place for farming and when that time came they could not see where to get enough American land for the money saved. Some of us wanted to start merchandising in a new country and grow up with it, but there were six Americans ahead of us in the business we wanted to go into wherever we struck a new settlement in the States. Others of us, especially young folks, had mighty little, and didn't see much chance except of getting poorer, in eastern towns where we were raised. Size up all our reasons for coming to Western Canada, and they amount to one. We wanted to make money, to get better off, to give our families a chance and to have quiet times.

WHY BENNETT RUNS

We have now got a general election for the two provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan coming on before hand, and to save my skin I can't see but what we have the same question over again that we had last November, 1904. There's one party that was then keen to stop the Grand Trunk Pacific. That party appears now just as sharp set to make trouble for the party that is hurrying to build it. Now we Americans have had some considerable education in what it means for an election to turn down the friends of a first-class enterprise. If we find the monopolist railroad men out for all they are worth against one of the provincial parties, we are not apt to think that those railroaders are exercising themselves so hard just for their health. Can any man give any kind of reason why the C.P.R. solicitor in Calgary should be put to boss the anti-Liberal party in Alberta if the C. P. R. did not see its advantage in getting the Liberals licked? That railroad had no kind of direct interest, one way or the other, so far as I can see in the elections for local legislatures that are coming on. It stands to reason then, that it feels an indirect interest. It appears to me that it is the Ottawa Government the C. P. R. is after, and that government can't be hit or hurt without some hindering of the Grand Trunk Pacific and its branches. You would think that the C.P.R. folks would naturally want to see quiet times here and the party supported that has been rushing in immigrants. But, no. And from the size of the interest the C. P. R. has in quiet times and increased immigration you can give a pretty straight guess at the size of the other superior interest the C. P. R. thinks it is in making nothing of quiet times and increased immigration. That superior interest of the monopolist railroad—what is it? Is it to strike the new local provincial governments for no other reason than that the stroke would hit the Laurier government hard, and that whatever hurts that government would hurt the Grand Trunk Pacific horse?

WHAT HAVE THE NEW PROVINCES TO COMPLAIN OF?

What is there in the constitution and terms that have been given to us folks in Alberta and Saskatchewan that ought to make us kick? For the life of me I can't see. We were all getting along fine under the Territorial system that existed until now, except that there was a shortness of Government money at Regina to build roads and bridges, to aid schoolhouses and pay teachers for the children.

THE FINANCIAL TERMS.

At the end of the first five years a census will be taken, and the Dominion payments will be increased, according to the increase of each in population. Each will forever receive, as all the other Canadian provinces do, an annual subsidy of 80 cents a head. It stands this year at $200,000 on an estimate that each new province, Alberta and Saskatchewan, contains 250,000 people. If the census of five years forward shows that each has 400,000 people, each will receive $200,000 on that item. Then the allowance for lands also grows with population. It will amount to $375,000 this year, to $562,500 for 400,000 population to $750,000 for 800,000 population, and to $1,125,000 for 1,200,000 population. The allowance for civil government stays fixed at $50,000 a year, and the allowance for debt stays fixed at $405,375 a year.

Now if you run over all this with a pencil and paper you find that Alberta and Saskatchewan will each have an income of $1,030,375 from the Dominion treasury for each of the first five years, to say nothing of the five years' allowance of $93,750 for public buildings. Each will have a similarly derived income of $1,337,875 when its population amounts to 800,000; one of $1,845,375 when it contains 800,000 and one of $2,220,375 for 1,200,000, of population. Now it is a fact that these terms make Alberta and Saskatchewan better off as provinces than any of the old Canadian provinces except Ontario, and just as well off as Ontario. You mark my word for that, and if anybody says it is wrong I can tend to him later.

WHAT REASON TO KICK?

Now what have we got to raise Cain about? Mr. Haulman taking these new provinces should have the Dominion lands to sell and to manage. That would mean taking over the immigration business, and paying for it, or else neglecting it. Where would the money come from to do the business as it has been done the last eight years? Some say it would come out of the lands, but it has not come out of the lands to the Ottawa Government. The lands have not paid for administering them and populating them, not by about one million dollars in the last twenty-five years. Nobody denied that at Ottawa last session, so far as I saw in the speeches. The

An American Settler, Etc

Ottawa Government paid for settling folks out here because that pays the Ottawa Government indirectly seeing they get an increase from the customs and internal revenue duties that western settlers pay. The new provincial government doesn't and can't get any of that kind of money. If we had ownership of the lands here we should have to get a revenue out of them. Instead of losing money by managing and settling them, same as the Ottawa Government can afford to do. It seems to me sure we could not meet expenses of the lands and immigration service out of the revenue we'd be able to get out of the lands, if we kept on giving half of them away free to homesteaders, and selling the rest at a nominal price of three dollars an acre. And if we stopped that policy, and raised the price all round, what about attracting immigrants? We want settlers here. No use me reminding you why that is our first need, since everybody west knows their roads, bridges, schools, municipal institutions and every kind of convenience improves according to the number of settlers there is to help run things and stand the expense. We know what we have got in the way of an immigration and development service from leaving the lands to be owned and run at a direct dead loss, by Ottawa. We don't know what we would get by taking the lands over, and running development services. Well, I guess a considerable number of Americans and of native Canadians, too are like myself in preferring the good thing we've had experiencing of, to the gold brick we have never tested. It appears to me we can raise the lands question hereafter just about any time we see it would be to our advantage to do that, but that time is not now, sure.

HIS VIEW OF THE SCHOOLS QUESTION.

If the lands business has been fixed by the Western Liberals just to the taste of all kinds except the professional anti-Liberal and Mr. Haultain, what else have we got to raise Cain about? The schools? Why? Because it does not suit a lot of professional anti-Liberals away down east, especially in the fine city of Toronto, that the folks west should have local option in teaching religion in their schools for half an hour a day! Beats all what a grievance that is to some down East that we never saw, and that never were west in their lives. What harm is there in local option in teaching religion in the schools from half past three to four in the afternoon? No board of trustees need have it unless their people want it. If they do want it, and if there are any parents in the place that do not want their children to attend the religious teaching, why, all they have to do is to tell their children to point for home at half past three. All the rest of the school day, forenoon and afternoon, the children all alike, must get their lessons in reading, writing, geography, arithmetic and so on, from teachers all certified alike by the provincial government, all having to pass our and the same examination, all bound to teach out of the same books authorized by the provincial educational authorities. If that is not a National system, I don't know what National system means. Did you ever know any children to get any harm by being taught religion, I don't care what brand, if only it is the kind their parents want them taught, for half an hour a day? Half an hour is long enough; no use trying to stuff them with it; that is likely to sour them on the scheme. At least I can't say as I have found my own boys and girls right keen for much more.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL POINT

We all know what the school system is; we all like it, you can't find anybody who sees a practical grievance in it. The anti-Liberals themselves say that it is first-rate and just the right thing. Their grievance is that it has been continued by Ottawa putting it into the new constitutions of the new provinces. Mr. Haultain said he would not stir it if he were made dictator tomorrow. That means, really, that he would not take away from the Protestant minority of a school district if that district has a majority of Catholics, the natural right of Protestant parents to organize a minority school, so as to have their children surrounded by Protestant influences and taught their half hour of Protestant religion a day. It likewise means he would leave a Catholic minority, located in any

STRIKE

Editor Edmonton Bulletin.

Dear Sir,
Kindly allow me the use of your columns to say before the public the facts that are of interest to the citizens of Edmonton.

The workmen on the new Maternity Hospital went on strike on Monday, the 10th inst. A hospital is a public as well as a charitable institution, therefore the citizens should know the cause and history of the strike.

The contract for heating the building was let to a Winnipeg firm, The Standard Plumbing Co. This firm employs differently union and non-union men. Two of the men sent to install the furnaces are not union men. On Saturday, the 9th inst. some plumbers, members of the local union asked me to dismiss the two non-union foremen.

I told them I could not do so—as architect I have no authority over a contractor, neither have I authority to hire or dismiss them. I have only the letting of the contract and the supervision of the work.

The manager of the firm, Mr. Turner, was away for a week and could not be notified, so in my opinion nothing could be done before his return. I asked the members of the union to keep on working till Mr. Turner's return, holding myself responsible for whatever might happen.

I told them a strike would hurt the workmen, the Sisters, and the Edmonton public, much more than it would hurt Mr. Turner's firm, as it might prevent the completion of the work before the winter, and expose this costly building to be spoiled by bad weather.

This in my opinion, was reason, justice and common sense. These reasons, however, were not accepted by the leaders of the local unions, and the following Monday, without even notifying me all the union men, carpenters, plasterers, plumbers, etc., did not come to work. Now, Mr. Editor, I ask the Edmonton fair-minded citizens, have the local unions been fair and just towards a charitable institution? For my part I see no reason for this strike, and I cannot account for it except through the jealousy of some of the Edmonton business houses or workmen.

The Strike

Why was it let to a Winnipeg firm in preference to a local firm? The public have a right to know.

Simply because the Winnipeg tender was exactly $129.00 lower than any local tender. I told the local firms I would give them the preference if there were only $2 or $300 difference. They refused to lower their prices.

I think the Edmonton public will agree with me in thinking it would be unjust to make the Sisters who live on charity and work for charity, pay $1219 extra, simply to oblige a local firm.

Now, Mr. Editor, kindly allow me more space for some personal remarks. I speak for myself only. I worked as a carpenter before being an architect. I have built the Edmonton General Hospital, Calgary Holy Cross Hospital, the St. Boniface Hospital, Normal School, water-works, the Winnipeg Maternity Hospital, etc. I never, either as a carpenter, a contractor or an architect made any difference between a union and non-union man. Why? Because I believe a man is free to join a union or not; because I believe a non-union man may be as good as a union man; because I believe every man's liberty must be respected; because I believe a skilled workman and his family have a right to live and work though he is not a union man.

The laborers have all my sympathy, and I believe they should unite to protect their rights, but they must respect the rights and liberty of others.

belong to a union. On this point the unions trespass on the rights of others, violate liberty, and this coercion instead of helping them brings discredit upon them.

Besides strikes are always an evil, and should be avoided as much as possible. In this regard leaders of unions as well as employers have great duties.

In this particular strike the leaders of the local unions have not, it seems to me, realized their responsibility. They have not tried to avert the effect of the strike, which will hurt not only a charitable institution, but the men themselves.

The Sisters are building a hospital worth $55,000.00, which will be a credit to the town as well as a great convenience, and this building is exposed to serious damages, as, owing to this delay it may not be completed this season.

Why should these Sisters of Charity suffer for a thing they cannot help? Is this just and fair?

In my opinion this is of a nature to injure the city of Edmonton in the eyes of strangers. One of the Edmonton prominent medical men wrote recently in a public letter that Edmonton was not fair to its charitable institutions. This seems to be true of some at least. Many citizens seem to think that a city owes nothing to its charitable institutions or the Sisters who take care of their sick, because the same sisters receive a few hundred dollars from charitable persons. But they forget that these Sisters have built hospitals worth thousands of dollars, which have not cost a cent to the city.

They forget that if the Sisters were not here the city would have to take care of its sick, paupers and invalids, and this again would cost thousands of dollars. Every one knows that hospitals do not pay and business men do not invest in charitable works.

This strike will hurt the union by bringing discredit upon it. It will hurt the laborers for a week's strike means at least $600.00 of outside money—wages for the men and the city.

Several strikers, I know of, for a fact deplore the strike, but they are not free; they cannot go to work; they have to await the decision of the leaders. These live in the States; they know not the circumstances. There is no hurry for them for they are well paid whether they work or not—but it is not so with the laborers of Edmonton. And who suffers? The laborers, the city, the Sisters. Who gains? Nobody.

Excuse me, Mr. Editor, for taking so much of your space. This is a question of vital importance and of public interest. I thought the Edmonton citizens should know it in order to judge who is right and who is wrong.

Thank you Mr. Editor for your great kindness. I remain,

J. A. SENECALE,
Architect.

Protestant majority school district, the same natural right. Then, what on earth is there to stir up about? If the arrangement is sound and good as it seems to me, what practical harm if it was put into the new provincial constitutions? Seems to me the western Liberal members might well brag of having got it put in at Ottawa. That salvation in the subject dangerous to business and progress and immigration. The school system being fixed is, sure, no danger to our practical interests. On the contrary, the settlement of the question is attractive to all kinds of Christian believers. They see they are going to have a first-rate national and secular school system, with the additional privilege of social option and parental option as to whether they want their children taught their own religion or none at all, for less than a day. We want all kinds here. The neighbor that helps me to lay a road across the swampy place, or pays taxes to get a bridge built across the creek that I have to pass going in to sell my wheat, is a benefit to me, no matter what his creed may be, or what his children get taught, or his or their mother's leave, or school after and pay. I want him to have all the liberty, and all the social option I enjoy. I will just say it would be a mighty serious grievance to me, and to other Americans around here, if we were not free to send our school taxes to a school practically under our own management. The idea that we have got a grievance because we cannot under other taxes sending their taxes to a school that suits their religious option for half an hour a week is just plain ridiculous. But it is not half as ridiculous as the notion we have a grievance because Ottawa continued here the school system we like. Think of grown men complaining because the law prevents them doing what they don't want to do.

That puts me in mind of the grievance John Hurst Goodyear had against the law. He was a very respectable citizen, where some of us used to live in the States. But kind of eccentric, even had a great opinion of the degree of authority a husband ought to have over his wife. There was not a kinder husband in the town, but he would refer you to the Bible right along: "Wives, submit yourselves to your husbands," and all that. Held that the State-law against wife-beating had no root in English history, or the Bible, or common sense. Held it interfered with his personal liberties. Used to say: "I don't want to kick my wife. God knows! There ain't a better, kinder woman in all the world. But all wives are mortal and the Bible says it ain't good for a man to dwell alone. Suppose I got a different kind next time. What gets me is this here state law. I feel as if it kind of coerced me into treating my wife as kind as I do if I was legally free to kick her she might feel more sure I am a loving husband."

Fact is, John wanted to feel he had her in his power. And, by what? Can make out of Canadian politics, the only real kick against having the school system of this West secured to this West by the constitution comes from folks that feel hurt, whenever they can't feel that they gave half of their neighbors in their power in regard to religious teaching for half an hour a day.

HOW THE OLD EAST WORRIES

If you read the speeches of the Ottawa politicians and the editorials of the Toronto papers, you must have seen that down there they do not look at these provinces with western eyes at all. It is all "This don't square with what George Brown said forty years ago," or "It don't square with what he said thirty years ago," or "It ain't with Lord Carnarvon," or "With Sir John Thompson," or "Sir John Macdonald said this, and Sir Alexander Mackenzie said that, and Lord Herschell said the other thing, and Mr. Laurier didn't say the same thing when he was plain Mr. as he does since he is a Sir!" What does the west care about all that ancient Canadian history? Folks down there in Ontario seem to be living in the past, same as some old cantankerous married couple keep on nagging one another about old quarrels that the children have no part in, and don't ever want to hear anything more about. I make no doubt George Brown and the rest of them were very fine men, but Lord, they ain't alive, and their world is as dead as they are. I certainly should be sorry to talk or write disrespectful of the opinions and feelings of the good Canadian neighbors here and mine are blessed with here, but I do not find them all great. I put about by what George and the rest of them said long ago. Certainly some of them do talk as if it was a kind of religious duty to worry about what their folks down east are exciting themselves on. But I never yet saw anybody that was really and truly worked up about religious duty of that kind. Seems to me my Canadian neighbors generally look at the thing just as I do, or nearly, with western eyes, and an intention to take hold and work the new institutions for all they are worth. That is, sure, the only way we can find out what those institutions really are, how good, how bad, and how much they may need to be changed. To get at rooting them up before we have tried them would be, seems to me, about as sensible as digging up seed potatoes to see if the pieces are all rooting right. And that, itself, would be sensible compared to digging out the seed crop just because folks two thousand miles away down east write that the man we elected to put the potatoes in for us did not follow the rules of agriculture in Ontario.

WHY HE TAKES A HAND

If anybody wants to know what business I've got to be airing my views on the coming election, I tell him I have a considerable stake in both in Alberta and Saskatchewan because all I have is in land and crops, partly in one province and partly in the other. I am not wanting, and I would not take any office or political job I know of, but I am wanting that my land shall rise in value, and my crops, present and future, be grown with an improved prospect of being marketed at a good price. Seems to me that gives me a right to talk in my meeting if I want to, and anyhow I am taking the liberty. Nobody can make me believe it is to my interest that these provinces, or either of them should elect anti-Liberals in the coming elections. I want roads, immigration, railway competition. The anti-Liberals seem to me dead set on giving me agitation, unsettlement, trouble times, everything I do not want, and nothing I moved in here to get for my family.

Look east in Canada, read the Ontario papers and if you do not see that the people there are just waiting our western decision to either settle down for a long time of good business, or else rear up and rise Cain for a longer time, then you and I don't agree about the meaning of the signs of the times. I want Laurier and Oliver and the Grand Trunk Pacific commissioners left free to attend strictly to business, especially western business, the next three or four years. If they don't do it, we can turn them out next elections for the Dominion. But they can attend strictly to business if we folks in the west slap them in the face now, and so set them busy with nothing much except trying to fix up their political fences. Give them a chance—for our sakes. They have got the job and the responsibility for the next few years. We can't get it away from them, do what we may. It would be bad business to worry them in the execution of what we gave into their charge last November. That they shall be worried, so as to hinder them attending to my interests and to your interest, is the meaning of the anti-Liberals here sure.

I mean to vote Liberal. I mean to work Liberal for all I'm worth, and if Americans and Canadians think what I have said is about right, they will, it's likely, work Liberal and vote Liberal, same as me. That is all from yours truly at present, but if anybody has any fault to find with my way of looking at the situation I will be glad to hear from him. I will take back anything he shows to be wrong, and I will be glad to have the chance to reason with him about the nature of his complaint.

PROF. RIDDELL ATTACKED

The Regina Standard is highly indignant that Professor Riddell should have given an interview to the "Toronto Press" during the course of which he expressed disapproval of Mr. Haultain's course in hitting into Federal politics. The Standard begins with the mild complaint that:

"It is evident that Mr. Riddell is not a politician; it is also evident that he knows very little about public questions. If he had even an average acquaintance with the political history of this country, he would have refrained from criticizing Mr. Haultain's course, with reference to Dominion politics."

Continuing, the Standard cites the instances of Sir Oliver Mowatt, Hon.

A. S. Hardy, Hon. G. W. Ross, Hon. Mercer and Hon. J. W. Longley taking part in the Federal campaign and concludes in the tone it began by saying:

"Principal Riddell, of Edmonton, will do well to take account of his position before he makes another plunge into the stream of party discussion. It is possible that some one has 'loaded' him with alleged political ideas, and that he now thinks he is an oracle on affairs of state. His friends should quietly take him aside and teach him the rudiments of Canadian politics."

The attack of the Standard is quite in line with the reception which has been given every distinguished Westerner who has dared during the past few months express an opinion contrary to the views of the anti-Liberals. Whenever such opinion has been forthcoming it has brought down upon the holder an avalanche of criticism quite irrelevant to the subject in hand and regardless alike of scholarly attainment and integrity of character. The fate of Dr. Bryce and Dr. Carmichael has been repeated in the case of Prof. Riddell and this gentleman who is known throughout Western Canada for worth of character, ripe scholarship and thorough information will receive from the organs which hold opposing views no more consideration than was shown the former victims.

The argument of the Standard is so far as argument can be found in the plenitude of chaff is that as Liberal Provincial premiers took part in Federal campaigns Mr. Haultain was equally privileged to participate in Federal campaigns. All of which is quite true and has not been questioned.

But what the Standard does not say is that the Liberal Premiers were dependent alone upon Liberals for support and took their political fortunes fairly and openly in their hands in discussing Federal issues. Premier Haultain on the other hand was and claimed to be quite as dependent upon Liberals as upon Conservatives for the position which he occupied and from which he assailed the Federal Government which his Liberal supporters upheld.

The right of Mr. Haultain to assail Liberalism is not questioned but having done so Mr. Haultain should take the consequences of the war which he precipitated without being prided before the electorate as a martyr for the cause of independence.

It will probably be about the end of October before the second and third flats of the Empire Block will be ready for occupation by the complete government staff.

It is rumored on the street today that Foley, Lock & Larson, wholesale grocers of Winnipeg, and R. J. Whitlaw, wholesale dry goods, are contemplating opening branches in the city.

The Epworth League of McDougall Methodist Church held a social and literary meeting last evening. The feature of the evening was an address by Rev. C. H. Huestis on "Books and Reading."

Mr. S. Mullett leaves this afternoon for Vancouver to meet his business partner after which they go to Fort William to take charge of a hardware business recently purchased by them in that city.

The inside brick partition walls of the new C. N. R. station are up one story and the basement has been laid. The work is being hustled along so that the station may be ready for the arrival of the first train from the east.

J. McKernan left today to resume his duties as operator at Athabasca Landing. A new combined telegraph office and post office building is being built at the Landing and will be ready for occupation in about a month.

At the rink on Saturday and Monday night, September 23 and 25, the successful musical farce comedy "The Richest Man in Georgia" will be produced by Williams and Stevens and their company of colored comedians.

Hon. W. H. Cushing is in the city. He will be in his department for two or three days, returning to Calgary at the end of the week. He reports the meeting addressed by Geo. D. Grant, M.P., to have been a most decided success.

The Canadian Pacific Railway freight and ticket offices are being opened this week in the Heimblock. H. H. Abbott, assistant general freight manager of Calgary, is in the city opening the offices after which R. H. Buchanan, of Calgary, will take charge as agent for this city.

—Some three months ago Mr. C. D. Massey, of Toronto, subscribed $5000 from the estate of the late Hart A. Massey, of which the former is executor, to Alberta College, provided the addition to the college was finished free of debt. The conditions have now been fulfilled. The $10,000 having been subscribed, so that Mr. Massey's contribution will be forthcoming.

—The Saskatchewan Provincial Cabinet has appointed all the acting heads of departments and all members of the Territorial staff who remained in Regina, to positions under the new administration. Quite a number of these were Conservatives but no difference, whatever, was made on this account, the positions being allotted without regard to party advantage.

—Maple Creek Signal: Mr. W. F. MacLean, M.P., went forth with a flourish of trumpets to stir up the West, but about all he did at Calgary was to fall foul of the Herald. At any rate, his reception was so chilly, that he returned home to Toronto without holding his proposed meeting at Regina. It seems rather hard that his own party should go back on him after he had given that $1,000 away.

—Prof. Riddell returned last evening from High River and Okotoks where he spent Saturday and Sunday. Three students returned with him to attend Alberta College, and he succeeded in augmenting the endowment funds of the college. The professor speaks enthusiastically about the crops in the neighborhood he visited. He drove thirty miles east of High River and says that signs of the greatest prosperity are to be seen on every hand.

—The Edmonton Amateur Dramatic Company will present the English comedy "Our Boys" at Ross Hall, Strathcona, on Thursday next, the 21st inst., that being the first day of the fair there. This play was produced in Edmonton a short time ago by the same company, under the direction of Arthur E. Hopkins, and met with great success. It is comprised of the best of local talent, and deserved to be well patronized. The play had a run of 1500 nights at the Strand Theatre, London, England, the longest run that any comedy ever had, which speaks volumes for its popularity.

—The generous concessions which are made to the Bible Society by the Government and private railways in Russia can show no equal in any other country. The number of railway miles put at the society's disposal in the Empire of the Czar without charge for travelling or freight, amounts to not less than a quarter of a million a year. As an instance of Bible traffic in Russia, on August 11th consignments of Scripture were despatched from the society's depot in St. Petersburg to be carried 1,500 miles, while the week before the consignments despatched were to be carried 5,200 miles; and this represents the output from St. Petersburg alone, without taking into consideration the society's other depots in various parts of Russia and Siberia. Concessions such as these are a valuable contribution to the society's working expenses.
